NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

OCC Establishment (“Opposer”), an anstalt of Liechtenstein, having its principal place of business at Staedtle 36, FL-9490 Vaduz, Liechtenstein, believes it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/666,875, and hereby opposes same under the provisions of Section 13 of the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. Section 1063.

Application Serial No. 85/666,875 was filed on July 2, 2012, on an intent-to-use basis, for the mark THE DAILY ORBIT for:

“Providing consumer information and related news in the field of science” in International Class 35 (“the Services”).

The mark was published for opposition in the Trademark Official Gazette of December 11, 2012, and extensions of time to oppose have been granted until June 9, 2013.

As grounds for opposition, Opposer asserts that:

1. Opposer OCC Establishment is an anstalt of Liechtenstein, with its principal place of business at Staedtle 36, FL-9490 Vaduz, Liechtenstein.

2. Upon information and belief, Applicant RedOrbit, Inc. is a corporation of the State of Texas with an address at 4610 Benton Smith Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37215.

3. Opposer is the owner of the marks ORBIT & Design and ORBIT which have been used in the United States for television broadcasting, and not abandoned. The first use in commerce in the United States was at least as early as November 15, 2006.

4. Opposer owns valid and subsisting U.S. Registration No. 2,136,435, which was filed on July 15, 1994, and issued on February 17, 1998, under Section 44(e), for the mark ORBIT and Design for “television broadcasting via satellite” in International Class 38. This registration was renewed on February 5, 2008. The mark is currently in use for the services in commerce in the United States. A copy of the registration, a printout from the U.S.P.T.O’s TSDR database showing current status and ownership of the registration and a printout from the U.S.P.T.O’s assignment database for this registration are attached as Exhibit A.

5. Opposer is also the owner of valid and subsisting U.S. Registration No. 3,414,874, which was filed on February 15, 2005 and issued on April 22, 2008, for the mark ORBIT for “television broadcasting” in International Class 38. The mark is currently in use for the services in commerce in the United States. A copy of the registration, a printout from the U.S.P.T.O’s TSDR database showing current status and ownership of the registration and a printout from the U.S.P.T.O’s assignment database for this registration are attached as Exhibit B.

6. On July 2, 2012, Applicant filed application Ser. No. 85/666,875 for the mark THE DAILY ORBIT for the Services on an intent-to-use basis.

7. Applicant previously filed intent-to-use application Serial No. 85/639,213 on May 31, 2012 for the identical mark THE DAILY ORBIT for Class 38 services described as “broadcasting of television programmes; broadcasting of video and audio programming over the Internet; broadcasting programs via a global computer network; Internet broadcasting services; television broadcasting; video broadcasting; wireless broadcasting” (“the Initial Services”).

8. Upon learning of Applicant’s application Serial No. 85/639,213, Opposer wrote to Applicant on June 20, 2012 identifying for Applicant Opposer’s registrations for ORBIT & Design and ORBIT and requested Applicant to abandon application Serial No. 85/639,213 and to agree not to use the mark THE DAILY ORBIT for the Initial Services nor any other ORBIT mark for any broadcasting services.

9. On July 2, 2012, Applicant expressly abandoned its application Serial No. 85/639,213, the same day Applicant filed the presently opposed application Serial No. 85/666,875.

10. On or about September 10, 2012, Opposer learned that Applicant had commenced use of the mark THE DAILY ORBIT at Applicant’s website found at www.redorbit.com. Copies of the pages of Applicant’s website branded THE DAILY ORBIT, as of September 10, 2012, are attached as Exhibit C (yellow highlighting added).

11. On information and belief, Applicant has been using the mark THE DAILY ORBIT to identify the video broadcasting on its website of a daily news program since at least as early as September 10, 2012.

12. On information and belief, Applicant’s use of the mark THE DAILY ORBIT, since at least as early as September 10, 2012, has consistently identified a daily video news program broadcast from Applicant’s website.

13. On information and belief, Applicant's use of THE DAILY VARIETY mark as reflected in Exhibit C identifies a daily video news broadcast service.

14. The mark which Applicant seeks to register, THE DAILY ORBIT, fully incorporates Opposer's previously registered ORBIT mark and therefore so resembles Opposer's previously used marks in the United States and not abandoned such that the use and registration of Applicant's THE DAILY ORBIT mark is likely to cause confusion, mistake and/or deception as to the source or origin of Applicant's services.

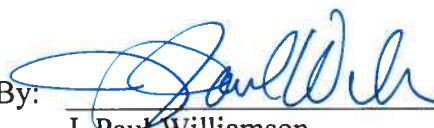

15. The services of Opposer and the Services set out in Applicant's application are so closely related that the public is likely to be confused and to assume erroneously that Applicant's Services are those of Opposer or that Applicant is in some way connected with and/or sponsored by or affiliated with Opposer, all to Opposer's irreparable damage.

16. The registration of Applicant's mark on the Principal Register would be inconsistent with Opposer's rights at common law and under its aforementioned registrations, and would be damaging to Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that Application Serial No. 85/666,875 be rejected, and that registration of this mark be refused.

Respectfully submitted,
